Cultural activities:

The College conducts various cultural activities through Fine Arts Club. The club conducts competitions for students every year. Every year inter-collegiate cultural feast called "REGALIA" is conducting by the college. In which our college students and various other college students will participate actively.

Cultural club of SNMV CAS "SARANG" is responsible for all the cultural events in the Institute around the year. Sarang strives to bring out the hidden talent of the students of the college. It is the place where students can showcase their hidden talents. It helps to discover their talent. Cultural events include competitions such as instrumental, singing, dance etc. Every year this club organizes activities such as dance competition, singing competition, drama etc. The competitive academic environment and co-curricular activities on campus keep the students on their toes. But everyone needs some time off, to relax and recharge. Cultural Club "Sarang" is the best place for this. Every year this club looks for active participation of students from various courses in cultural activities which results in enhancement of the personal skills and experiences like confidence, self-presentation; teamwork. This club holds a separate music club with around 10 various instruments. Sarang conducts regular events which include solo and group singing competitions.
