ii)CCTV Cameras

Closed-circuit television (CCTV), also known as video surveillance, is the use of video cameras to transmit a signal to a specific place, on a limited set of monitors.

Safety and security measures for girl students start right from the entrance gate of the institution. The main gates are closed during the class times, 8.00AM to 1.30PM. The girl students are not permitted to leave the campus during the class hours. If any emergency arises, they are permitted to leave the campus only if a permission letter signed by the tutor, HOD and principal is shown at the entrance gate.

Very strict rules and regulations are followed in the girl's hostels, wings I and II. The hostel wardens maintain strict discipline in the hostel by following these rules and regulations.

b) Counseling

Considering the need for the professional counselling service, the Department of Social Work, Shri Nehru MahaVidyalaya College of Arts and Science is rendering an exclusive counselling service to students in need since 2013. Teenage or adolescent years are considered to be the "best years in a person's life". But in reality, Life for many young people is a painful experience filled with mixed messages and conflicting demands from parents, teachers, friends and oneself. It creates stress, and it can create serious depression for young people who are not trained to cope, communicate and solve problems. Student facing such issues are given support through the SVASTIKA Student Counselling Centre of Social Work Department, SNMV CAS. The Service is free and available to all undergraduate students of SNMV CAS. The Social Workers in the Counselling cell, provides support and guidance to students who are in crisis or who are experiencing mild to moderate mental health difficulties. If a student is identified to have severe mental health issues, they are referred to the appropriate service institutions linked with the Department.

The counselling cell provides individual counselling, in which supportive therapy, environment modification therapy and Cognitive Behavioral Therapy (CBT), is practiced based on person specific. The Service also offers a variety of topic-specific workshops throughout the year, like anger management, conflict resolution, power of positivity, transactional analysis etc., Through counselling cell, the Department of Social Work organizes various program for various school children in building Coping strategies includes non-destructive ways to find relief, being able to talk to counselor, express feelings, vent emotions, and to learn problem-solving skills.

c) Common room
