Dated: 21/02/2025

The OBC cell meeting was held on 21/02/2025 at 11.00 am in Shri Nehru Maha Vidyalaya College of Arts and Science, Malumachampatti, Coimbatore-641050.

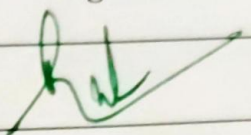

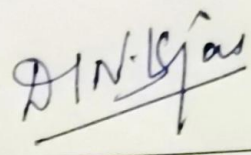

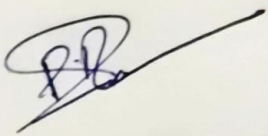

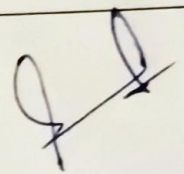

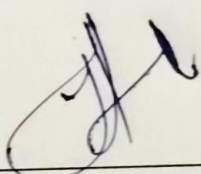

AGENDA:

1. Prayer song
2. Welcome address
3. Awareness towards job opportunities
4. Vote of thanks
5. National anthem

MINUTES:

- Legal and paralegal careers are promising for students interested in justice and advocacy, especially through LLB programs and internships with legal aid organizations.
- Internships and apprenticeships, even if unpaid initially, should be encouraged as they provide valuable industry exposure and can lead to long-term employment.
- NGO and social work sectors offer meaningful career paths for students passionate about community development, with roles in program coordination, outreach, and advocacy.
- Students should be guided on leveraging online platforms like LinkedIn, Naukri, and government job portals to access job listings, build networks, and stay informed about opportunities.
- Creative fields such as graphic design, animation, photography, and fashion offer opportunities for self-employment or freelance work, especially when supported with digital portfolios and training.
